PARENT LETTER: SUMMER 2021 EDITION

Dear Parents,

Raising teenagers is not for the faint of heart. They are transitioning from children to adults, all while navigating the world of technology. If you find yourself overwhelmed or discouraged, you are not alone. There are other families out there navigating the jungle of raising teens.

Today, we have a brief video that encourages you regarding your son or daughter's personal faith journey. It can be scary to watch them decide for themselves if they want to choose this path. So what do you do in the face of fear? The unknown? Our video gives you 3 practical, life-giving steps you can take as a parent.
