“Christianity is not an ethic whereby if we keep the Ten Commandments, we are good Christians. Christianity is not a philosophy whereby if we think a certain way, we are good Christians. Christianity is not a religion whereby if we do certain religious rituals, we are good Christians. No. Christianity is the miracle of a changed heart and a personal relationship with the living God.” Rodney Stortz

“Without the Holy Spirit nothing effectual can be done anywhere, or under any circumstances.”
May the spirit of King David and William Carey live on in modern Christians who fervently seek the presence of the Lord!” William Carey
